

The information presented in this section corresponds to statistics of industrial property in Mexico, specifically to patents. This section contains indicators regarding patent applications and patents granted by the Mexican Institute of Intellectual Property (IMPI by its Spanish acronym), disaggregated at national and state level. The stock also includes information from the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) and from the World Intellectual Property Organization (WIPO) for the case of the Mexican economy.

- Patents applied for and granted in Mexico (1993-2012)
- Patents applied for and granted in Mexico per million inhabitants (1993-2012)
- Patents applied for in Mexico by nationality (1993-2012)
- Patents granted in Mexico by nationality (1993-2012)
- Mexico: dependency ratio (1993-2012)
- Mexico: self-sufficiency ratio (1993-2012)
- Mexico: inventive coefficient (1993-2012)
- Patents granted in Mexico by nationality ratio (1993 and 2012)
- Patents granted in Mexico by technological area (1993-2012)
- Patents granted in Mexico by technological area (1993 and 2011)
- Patents granted in Mexico to Mexican holders per million inhabitants (1993-2012)
- Patents granted in Mexico to foreign holders per million inhabitants (1993-2012)
- Patents granted in Mexico to Mexican holders by technological area (1993 and 2011)
- Patents granted in Mexico to American holders by technological area (1993 and 2011)
- Patents applied for in Mexico by Mexican holders and state per 100 thousand inhabitants (2010)
  - Patents granted in Mexico to Mexican holders by state per 100 thousand inhabitants (2008)
- Patents granted in Mexico by state and technological area (2008)
- Mexico: PCT patent applications (1996-2011)
- Patents granted by the USPTO to foreign residents: Mexico (1990-2011)

